

DIAL LITES—TONIGHT

- 6:00—KNX—Al Jolson visits "Joan Davis" department store, but of course Joanie knows it isn't Al for she would know Larry Parks face anywhere.
- 6:00—KFI—Cary Grant returns to "Screen Directors Playhouse" as "Mr. Lucky" . . . this is the part of a draft-dodging gambler whose specialty is fleecing lady socialites.
- 7:00—KHJ—Sen. Robert Taft of Ohio will "Meet the Press" tonight . . . his interviewers are William White of the New York Times and William Mylander of the Cowles Publications.
- 8:00—KECA—At lunch a woman has a hunch that she is to be murdered . . . her hunch proves to be sound and Brad Runyon, "The Fair Man," ferrets this one out.
- 9:00—KNX—"Which twin has the pointed head?" . . . that is the way "My Favorite Husband" greets Liz, Lucille Ball, when he sees the result of her home beauty treatment.

TOMORROW

11:00—KECA—Puccini's opera "La Tosca" is the Met of-
