

DIAL LITES - TONIGHT

- 6:30—KNX—There'll be a hot time on the "Bing Crosby Show" tonight when Louis Armstrong, Jack Teagarden and Joe Venuti will each be "showcased" in their special talents.
- 7:00—KNX—Ronald Reagan will be subjected to an interview to end all interviews when "Gracie Allen" takes over the interrogation in her wacky fashion.
- 7:30—KFI—"Love Has Two Left Feet" when an archaeology professor falls in love with a dancing teacher. . . . This is the romantic comedy presented on "Curtain Time" tonight.
- 8:00—KECA—"Sherlock Holmes" finds himself all at sea in "The Case of the Interrupted Voyage" which concerns the operations of an international drug syndicate.
- 8:30—KHJ—"Family Theater" presents Dan Duryea, who will star in a special adaptation of Robert Louis Stevenson's famous story, "Lodging for a Night."

TELE-TIPS