

Spotlighting the Dial

Popular Programs

Vaughn Monroe, KTSA, 6:30 p.m., salutes Chi Omega sorority on Camel Caravan.

Jack Paar, comedian, KTSA, 13 noon, plays clerk's role in "Operation Green Dress" on "Stars Over Hollywood."

Arthur Godfrey starts new "Digest" program on KTSA at 8:30 p.m., comprising cream of humor and song from daily Godfrey program.

True or False, KMAC, 5 p.m., with Mrs. June Schneider, New London, Conn., as first contestant.

Dramatic Programs

Young Love, KTSA, 6 p.m., with Janet Waldo and Jimmy Lydon as co-stars.

Philip Marlowe, KTSA, 7:30 p.m., starring Gerald Mohr in "The Hairpin Turn."

Chicago Theater of the Air, KMAC, 9 p.m., presenting romantic operetta "Robin Hood."

Gangbusters, KTSA, 8 p.m., presenting "Case of the Two-Twenty-Two Call."

Grand Central Station, KTSA, 11:30 a.m., with Broadway actress Julie Bennett in "Cue for Casting."

Discussion

Cross-section, U.S.A., KTSA, 2:45 p.m., with Dr. J. T. Sanders, National Grange, analyzing Mr. Truman's legislative and welfare programs.

Public Affairs, WOAI, 11:15 a.m., in which Secretary of Labor Tobin and Dr. H. M. Marvin, heading American Heart Assn., discuss "Heart Disease—A Challenge to Industry."

Special broadcast, WOAI, 4:30 p.m., address by James Webb, Under Secretary of State, before Southern Conference, Democratic National Committee in Raleigh, N. C.

Public Interest

Adventures in Science, KTSA, 2:15 p.m., with Harvard solar-research director explaining rains on the sun.

Living—1950, WOAI, 3 p.m., offers a dream-document, "The Balance Sheet of Freedom."

Voices and Events, WOAI, 1 p.m., a resume of news events with actual voices of central figures.

Farm Programs

National Farm and Home Hour, WOAI, 12:30 p.m., with Michigan experts on reducing baby pig losses.

Children's Programs

Joe DiMaggio Show, KTSA, 9:30 a.m., with Jimmy Braddock, former heavyweight champion, as guest.

Let's Pretend, KTSA, 10:05 a.m., dramatizing "The Little Lame Prince."

Symphonies for Youth, KMAC, 12:30 p.m., with the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra.

Col. Strum Assumes Position in Japan

Lt. Col. Willie G. Strum, formerly with the San Antonio General Depot here, has arrived in Japan and assigned to duties at the Tokyo Quartermaster Depot.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Strum, 1109 Hays St. His wife, Mrs. Loraine Strum, now residing in Uvalde, is expected to join the colonel in the Far East Command.

Prior to his entry into active military service, Col. Strum was a civil service employe with the Department of the Army for 33 years. He went to Japan from the Office of the Quartermaster General, Washington, D.C.