

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 5:30—KFI—"Baby Snooks" at last has the upper hand over Daddy . . . aided by a wealthy aunt.
- 6:00—KFI—Bob Hope is still on tour, this time it is New York City. He is to appear as emcee at the Radio Correspondents Association dinner in Washington.
- 6:30—KNX—Vincent Price will be heard in the role of Roger, condemned murderer, in "Present Tense," on the "Escape" series tonight.
- 8:00—KECA—"Time for Defense" scores another first . . . a tape recording made inside a "Drone" (radio-controlled plane). The plane's driver, Jack Siegal will describe his reactions as the plane was sent into a 90-degree dive and landed safely.
- 9:45—KTED—This new station adds a drama series . . . "The Unexpected," an exciting mystery.

TELE-TIPS