

DIAL LITES - TONIGHT

- 6:30—KNX—For lack of any other excuse, "Bing Crosby" has invited Bob Hope to his program to help him celebrate "National Sauerkraut Week" . . . for this momentous event they have invented some pet names for each other in the Dutch vernacular. . . . Bob will be known as "Krauthead" and Bing will answer to "Flabby" . . . to relieve the situation Peggy Lee will sweeten the program with her lovely songs.
- 8:00—KECA—It's a mystery man's field day on "The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes," as the old sleuth roams the 40-room death mansion in "The Case of the Frightened Matriarch."
- 8:30—KHJ—"Family Theater" brings John Howard to the lead role in Robert Louis Stevenson's "The Black Arrow."
- 8:30—KFI—"The Great Gildersleeve" goes all out in his wooing of Nurse Katherine Milford . . . when she refuses to accompany him to a dance he takes a few samba lessons . . . better stick to the waltzes Gildy!
- 9:00—KNX—When "Jeff Regan, Investigator," received a letter containing two tickets to a burlesque show, plus $50, he takes his boss to the performance in "All the Queen's Men" . . . when a murder occurs behind the scenes they go right to work.
