

Spotlighting the Dial

Popular Programs

Lum and Abner, KTSA, 9:30 p.m., in which the boys decide they should operate their store like a big corporation and have partnership insurance, with exciting results that begin almost before the ink is dry on the document.

Burns and Allen, KTSA, 9 p.m., finds Gracie on the trail of the hit-run driver who dented her car's fender—and guess who it was.

Jack Smith and Dinah Shore, KTSA, 6:15 p.m., in a tuneful program of solos and duets.

Bing Crosby, KTSA, 8:30 p.m., will charge Fred Allen with a nefarious scheme to solve his income tax debt by coming out of "retirement" as a guest on Crosby's and Jack Benny's programs. Allen, needless to say, will reply.

Dramatic Programs

Mr. Chameleon, KTSA, 7 p.m., in which the sleuth, played by Karl Swenson, dons a unique disguise to solve "The Cinderella Wife Murder Case."

Dr. Christian, KTSA, 7:30 p.m. puts aside his medical duties for a brief time to straighten out the romantic problems of two hot-headed young people in "The Red-heads."

This Is Nora Drake, KTSA, 1:30 p.m., will bring Dorothy's answer to her latest proposal of marriage.

The Family Theater, KMAC, 8:30 p.m., celebrates its third anniversary on the air by presenting an adaptation of Anatole France's "The Juggler of Notre Dame."

Television

Dance Time, WOAI-TV, 6:30 p.m., with Red River Dave singing Western tunes and dance team Bud and Marie Nash demonstrating range-country steps.

Civil Service Jobs Open

TELEVISION