

DIAL LITES—TODAY

- 11:00—KHJ—A new series to prove that "Champions Are Made" debuts at this time today . . . although the subjects will usually be drawn from the sports world, this week's personality will be that champion of all time . . . Abraham Lincoln.
- 12:00—KNX—Bruno Walter conducts his last concert of the season with the New York Philharmonic Symphony . . . his selections will include the Hayden Symphony "No 88 in G Major" and the Mahler Symphony "No 1 in D Major."
- 1:00—KHJ—Yippie! Here is good news for youngsters of all ages. . . Bobby Benson and his "B-Bar-B Riders" has added this new time to bring you the story of his exciting adventures in the Texas cow country.
- 1:30—KECA—"Dost thou love life? Then do not squander time, for that is the stuff life is made of." With these words of Ben Franklin "The Voice of Prophecy" will speak on "The Wasted Years."
- 5:30—KFI—Ezio Pinza, playing his first straight dramatic role, will co-star with Madeleine Carroll and Linda Darnell in "Goodbye Again" on the "Theater Guild of the Air."
- 8:30—KNX—"Hansel and Gretel," as you never heard it from your mother's knee, will be presented by "Charlie McCarthy" with his lovely guest star, June Haver, playing the role of Gretel. . . Just to give you an idea of the whole thing Mortimer Snerd plays the sheepherder who is lost in the forest with Bergen as his rescuer . . . could be very funny.