

a.m., winds up a week of his popular mixture of light comedy and songs.

Dick Haymes, KTSA, 6:30 p.m., and the Andrews Sisters in a program of sparkling popular melodies.

Dramatic Programs

Larry Thor, KTSA, 8:30 p.m., as Danny Clover, the Broadway detective, is involved in another bizarre case of threatened murder.

Nora Drake, KTSA, 1:30 p.m., tells of a diamond bracelet in a pawn shop which is a strange way of showing one's love.

Aunt Jenny, KTSA, 11:15 a.m., begins a new story about a woman who finds a large obstacle to her promised happiness.

Lucille Ball, KTSA, 7:30 p.m., finds that teaching a teenager the samba leads into a hectic romantic triangle.

Garry Moore, KTSA, 8 p.m., invades the department store to provide a hilarious comedy sequence for Joan Davis.

News and Discussion

Winston Churchill, KTSA, 3:15 p.m.; CBS continues its comprehensive coverage of the crucial Feb. 23 British election by broadcast of the Conservative party leader's address from London.

Joseph A. Bierne, KMAC, 8:30 p.m., national president of the Communication Workers, is guest on "Meet the Press" program.

Edward R. Murrow, KTSA, 6:45 p.m., winds up another week with news and interpretative comment on the national and world scene.