

Spotlighting the Dial

Popular Programs

Charlie McCarthy, KTSA, 7 p.m., undergoes an operation for "dry rot" by a tree surgeon, while guest star Dan Dailey lulls him with songs like "Throw Another Log on the Fire."

Jack Benny, KTSA, 6 p.m.; and troupe tell about their long train ride to the Coast from New York.

Dramatic Programs

Family Hour of Stars, KTSA, 5 p.m., starring Irene Dunne in a half-hour adaptation of "Mrs. Parkington."

You Are There, KTSA, 1 p.m., dramatizes the classic charge of Captain Nolan's Light Brigade across the cannon-swept field at Balaclava.

Symphony Programs

New York Philharmonic-Symphony, KTSA, 10:30 p.m. (on FM at 2 p.m.), led by the brilliant young American conductor, Leonard Bernstein.

NBC Symphony Orchestra, WOAI, 3 p.m., with conductor Arturo Toscanini back on the podium for "Requiem Mass in C Minor."

For Young People

Corliss Archer, KTSA, 8 p.m., in which Corliss' father undertakes to cure her of the habit of losing things.

Hopalong Cassidy, KMAC, 3 p.m., wherein Hopalong finds his name on a "death list" and decides to make a run for it.

Public Interest

Columbia LP Record Parade, KTSA, 3:30 p.m., brings three historical excerpts from Edward R. Murrow's second "I Can Hear It Now" recording, and a musical excerpt from Rimsky-Korsakov.