

Spotlighting the Dial

Popular Programs

Johnson Family Singers with Grady Cole, KTSA, 1 p.m., one of radio's most harmonious family groups.

Garry Moore Show, KTSA, 3 p.m., featuring Bonnie Lou Williams of Bob Hawk's Crew Chiefs.

Telephone Hour, WOAI, 8 p.m., starring John Charles Thomas in a varied program including an American ballad, an old Italian song and excerpts from the works of Cole Porter and Gilbert and Sullivan.

House Party, KTSA, 2:30 p.m., with Art Linkletter continuing his search for the oldest maid in his audiences. Linkletter's guest for Monday will be Nick Lucas.

Dramatic Programs

Inner Sanctum, KTSA, 7 p.m., wherein an elderly man walks into a newspaper office with his own death notice, and a reporter with big ambitions follows up the story with macabre consequences.

Radio Theater, KTSA, 8 p.m., starring Linda Darnell and Paul Douglas in their original screen roles in "A Letter to Three Wives," full-hour adaptation of that suspenseful romantic drama.

My Friend Irma, KTSA, 9 p.m., features Irma (Marie Wilson) and her boy friend, Al, entertaining the rich, horse-dealing uncle of Prof. Kropotkin, but surprisingly disappointed in their hope of getting tips on the races. Wendy Warren and the News, KTSA, 11 a.m., puts Wendy in the position of seeming to be framed on a narcotics charge.

Aunt Jenny, KTSA, 11:15 a.m., deals with the question, "Should a woman marry the man she loves or stay with her sick father?"

Nora Drake, KTSA, 1:30 p.m., contains a strange offer and a strange refusal, both from the same person.

Discussion

Call Board, KONO, 6:30 p.m., with Amy Freeman Lee discussing The Bright Shawl Galleries' Faculty Print Show from the University of Texas and the San Antonio Symphony Opera Festival.

Special Feature

Livestock Exposition, KMAC, 12:15 p.m., featuring Jimmy Revard and his Oklahoma Playboys and Harry (Mushmouth) O'Connor, together with interviews highlighting the stock show, broadcast direct from the Coliseum.