

DIAL LITES - TONIGHT

- 6:30—KNX—One of show business' most unusual musical groups will make its coast to coast radio debut on the "Bing Crosby" show. It appears under the bizarre name of "The Firehouse Five—Plus Two" . . . instead of having one night off this combination has but one on . . . they are all otherwise employed.
- 7:30—KFI—A reporter who resembles a bank robber winds up marrying his jailer to get his freedom in "The Sheriff Was a Lady" on "Curtain Time."
- 8:00—KECA—"The Affair of the Restless Corpse" is the chiller diller set for the "Adventures of Sherlock Holmes." A suicide note and clothing left on the banks of a river are the only clues to the disappearance of a bank employe.
- 8:30—KHJ—Robert Stack will portray the part of a young American captain in the drama, "The Spy." This has been especially selected for "Family Theater" in commemoration of Washington's birthday.
- 9:30—KFI—A series of fires, obviously set deliberately, launch "Mr. District Attorney" on "The Case of the Moment in Red." When a body is found in the ruins "Mr. D. A." realizes that he has murder to contend with also.
