

Spotlighting the Dial

Dramatic Programs

Mr. and Mrs. North, KTSA, 7:30 p.m., set out to solve a common cold and wind up solving a cold-blooded crime. Joseph Curtin and Alice Frost co-star.

Life with Luigi, KTSA, 8 p.m., in which Pasquale fears that Luigi's going to a party at his pretty teacher's home may spoil his taste for the girls of his homeland.

Mysterious Traveler, KMAC, 8:30 p.m., with the Traveler telling the tale of a "Journey to the Unknown."

Cavalcade of America, WOAI, 7 p.m., starring movie actor Cornel Wilde in "Young Man in a Hurry."

Aunt Jenny, KTSA, 11:15 a.m., being the conclusion of the story Aunt Jenny has been telling.

Mystery Theater, KTSA, 7 p.m., starring Alfred Shirley as Inspector Hearthstone in "The Homely Bride Murder Case."

This Is Nora Drake, KTSA, 1:30 p.m., raising the question whether Nora's efforts to stop Dorothy are in vain.

Public Interest

Special broadcast, KTSA, 9:30 p.m., on which President Truman and General George C. Marshall will launch the 1950 Red Cross Fund Campaign, with Henry Fonda, narrating a dramatic sketch, "Across the Street, Across the Nation."

Swift Fund Drive Set at Randolph

Randolph Air Force Base personnel are heading for a swift Red Cross campaign, scheduled for Tuesday and Wednesday only.

This is the first time that a national fund raising project for the base will be completed in two days, officials say.

The organization of the campaign is being directed mainly through the staff sections and groups of the base, and all funds collected will be turned in to the Red Cross by the appointed project officer.

Last year, the counties of Comal and Guadalupe received some $1,300, representing the contribution of the Randolph