

Spotlighting the Dial

Popular Programs

Cedric-Adams, KTSA, 2:55 p. m. reveals how Zusu Pitts got her name.

Curt Massey, KTSA, 10:15 p. m. and Martha Tilton present "Curt Massey Time" with a group of songs.

Burns and Allen, KTSA, 9 p.m. finds Gracie turning her analytical talents to income-tax problems.

Jack Smith, KTSA, 6:15 p.m., with Dinah Shore in a line-up of solos and duets.

Art Linkletter, KTSA, 2:30 p.m., host of "House party," has Chuck Wohler, CBS vocalist, as guest.

Bing Crosby, KTSA, 8:30 p.m., with Brother Bob, star of Club 13, as guest for the second time.

Lum and Abner, KTSA, 9:30 p.m., with Cliff Arquette replacing Dink Dink Trout, whose role of Uncle Luke Spears will be "written out" of the show for five weeks while Trout has a major operation.

Dramatic Programs

Mr. Chameleon, KTSA, 7 p.m., With Karl Swenson in the title role solving a murder using a poem as a clue.

Dr. Christian, KTSA, 7:30 p.m., has his troubles making sure that "Granny Hears the Truth."

This Is Nora Drake, KTSA, 1:30 p.m., wherein a suitor is left waiting at the gate—of an airport.

Aunt Jenny, KTSA, 11:15 a.m., begins a real-life story "Either Way You Win."

Family Theater, KMAC, 8:30 p.m., starring Arlene Dahl in "The Railroad and the churchyard."

TELEVISION

Public Interest