

Spotlighting the Dial

Popular Programs

Dick Haymes, KTSA, 6:30 p.m. appears with Evelyn Knight in Club 15 in a program of popular songs.

Dinah Shore, KTSA, 6:15 p.m., and Jack Smith sing current popular musical numbers.

Arthur Godfrey, KTSA, 9:15 a.m., in another 75-minute broadcast mingling comedy, chatter and popular songs.

Art Linkletter, KTSA, 2:30 p.m., with another breezy and informally staged House Party program.

Dramatic Programs

Katina Paxinou, KTSA, 9 p.m., Greek-born actress, stars in "The Indestructible Julia" on the Hallmark program. Bennett Kilpack, KTSA, 1:30 p.m., as Mr. Keen, solves a murder that begins with the reported slaying of a ghost. Michael O'Shea, KTSA, 9:30 p.m., as a boxer who wants to become an engineer in Joseph Candor's play "Flash in the Pan."

Nora Drake, KTSA, 1:30 p.m., tells how George's morale improves because of a woman wearing orchids.

Robert Young, WOAI, 7:30 p.m., almost becomes convinced the jury system needs overhauling in "Father Knows Best."

Loretta Young, KTSA, 8 p.m., appears as an attractive young insurance agent in the suspense drama "Lady Killer."

Staats Cotsworth, KTSA, as Flash Casey, receives an anonymous telephone call that starts him on a danger-filled trail.

TELEVISION

WOAI-TV

Channel 4