

DIAL LITES - TONIGHT

- 6:30—KNX—Gary Cooper and his namesake, Gary Crosby join the latter's pappy, Bing, for a session of song and banter. For the comedy relief Cooper and the elder Crosby will re-enact the scene 16 years ago when Gary came into the world . . . for young Gary this is a return engagement by popular demand.
- 7:00—KFI—Although not a crime reporter, Edward Miller of Portland, Ore., was able to assist police in capturing one of the most ruthless criminals the northwest has ever known. This is an important example of the consequences of picking up hitchhikers and for his warning Miller will receive the "Big Story" award.
- 7:30—KHJ—A wealthy, high-handed frontier merchant runs afoul the "Cisco Kid's" sense of fair play, during the adventure titled "When Six-Guns Speak."
- 8:00—KECA—International intrigue holds the spotlight in "The Case of the Second Doctor" on the "Adventures of Sherlock Holmes." A professor who is working on secret government plans challenges the resourcefulness of Holmes.
- 8:30—KNX—"Dr. Christian" completes a family circle when he is instrumental in restoring a delinquent boy to his separated parents. The young pyromaniac finds that "Heaven's With Mom and Dad."