

DIAL LITES—TONIGHT

- 6:30—KFI—Paulette Goddard is greeted with much fanfare tonight when she pays a visit to "Duffy's Tavern" and Archie, who was heard to say on the phone (to Duffy): "Hey, what's that noise? . . . You're helpin' Mrs. Duffy with the supper dishes? But what's the racket? . . . Oh, you're washin' and she's throwin'."
- 7:30—KNX—Preston Foster will play an exciting, colorful outdoor role in "When the Wind Blows," a stirring drama of the old west, on "Skippy Hollywood Theater."
- 8:30—KFI—"Henry Aldrich" and "Homer" schedule a basketball game which results in fast disintegration for their team, during this comedy program tonight.
- 9:00—KECA—Ned Calmer's vivacious, hard-hitting novel about World War II, "The Strange Land," will come up for discussion on this program of "Author Meets the Critics."
- 9:30—KHJ—During the "Affairs of Peter Salem," it is embarrassing for a bachelor to be accused of being married . . . and the situation becomes even more serious, when murder is committed, during the story titled, "The Affair of the Bashful Bachelor."