

Spotlighting the Dial

Popular Programs

Vaughn Monroe, KTSA, 5:30 p.m., broadcasting from Alton, Ill., home of Monticello College for Girls, smallest school on the tour.

Gene Autry, KTSA, 7 p.m., with Parker Fennelly, radio's Titus Moody, as guest in a comedy sketch on the perils of the big city.

Judy Canova, WOAI, 9 p.m., attempts to get off the horns of her delimita—which boy friend to marry, if one should ever ask her.

Twenty Questions, KMAC, 7 p.m., with Nadine Connor, soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, as guest panelist.

Dramatic Programs

Grand Central Station, KTSA, co-starring Broadway feature players Ruth Ford and Richard Hart in "The Sleepwalker."

The Goldbergs, KTSA, 7:30 p.m., in which Jake Goldberg's income tax problems have a surprise and happy ending.

Gangbusters, KTSA, 8 p.m., with John J. Sullivan, former deputy police commissioner and chief of detectives in New York City, as narrator in the "Case of the Boiled Rooster."

For Young People

Junior Miss, KTSA, 10:30 a.m., wherein Judy takes the family to the Metropolitan Museum for a bit of self-improvement.

Young Love, KTSA 6 p.m., in which Jimmy locates the perfect honeymoon cottage to use for one week.

Let's Pretend, KTSA, 10:05 a.m., presenting the beloved Grimms' fairytale adventure "Hansel and Gretel."

Public Interest

Joe DiMaggio, KTSA, 9:30 a.m., with former President Herbert Hoover officially opening National Boys' Club Week.

Cross-Section, U.S.A., KTSA, 2:45 p.m., in which Peter Henle, A.F. of L. chief economist, discusses "Government Spending and Taxes."

Special broadcast, KTSA, 3 p.m., climaxing Save Your Vision Week, with talks by optometrists.