

Spotlighting the Dial

Popular Programs

Mark Trail, KMAC, 5 p.m., hero of the outdoors battles to save small game from drowning in flood waters.

Club 15, KTSA, 6:30 p.m., Dick Haymes and Margaret Whiting sing tunes of yesterday and today.

Show Goes On, KTSA, 7 p.m., Robert Q. Lewis interviews buyers of talent and auditions acts with Ray Bloch and his orchestra.

We the People, WOAI, 7:30 p.m., Dan Seymour has as guests Battling Nelson, Ted Lewis and Boy-of-the-Year with their unusual stories.

Dramatic Programs

Up for Parole, KTSA, 8 p.m., put yourself in the position of a parole board member and listen to the prisoner's petition.

Broadway Is My Beat, KTSA, 8:30 p.m., thrilling adventure centered around New York's theatrical district.

Public Interest

Meet the Press, KMAC, 8:30 p.m., Sec. of the Navy Francis Mathews, target of criticism because of the extended furlough ordered for Capt. John G. Crommelin, will hold a news-making conference with newspapermen.

Music for America, KTSA, 9 p.m., Glenn Osser, his orchestra and chorus present old and new semi-classical favorites that Americans love best.

Future of Israel Is Speaker's Topic

Mrs. Juliette T. Aschner will be guest speaker at the San