

Spotlighting the Dial

Popular Programs

Bing Crosby, KTSA, 8:30 p.m., brings the Andrews Sisters plus a hot combo, the Firehouse Five—plus Two, to share guest honors.

Burns and Allen, KTSA, 9 p.m., will study a problem brought by guest Al Jolson.

Dramatic Programs

Wendy Warren and the News, KTSA, 11 a.m., presenting a springlike situation in which Wendy may be Cupid's target.

Aunt Jenny, KTSA, 11:15 a.m., in which Aunt Jenny's story comes to a dramatic conclusion.

This Is Nora Drake, KTSA,

1:30 p.m., in which Charles Dobbs tries in vain to cancel an appointment to see a psychiatrist.

Mr. Chameleon, KTSA, 7 p.m., in which Karl Swenson in the title role investigates an involved marital status in "The Shocking Marriage Murder Case."

Dr. Christian, KTSA, 7:30 p.m., wherein the doctor cures a retired factory worker of his "sitting sickness" in the prize-winning drama, "The Sawdust Transfusion."

Family Theatre, KMAC, 8:30 p.m., with J. Carrol Naish is the narrator in the story of showman Phineas T. Barnum.