

Spotlighting the Dial

Popular Programs

Wendy Warren and the News, KTSA, 11 a.m., the mystery of Dorothy's death becomes more confusing.

Meredith Willson Show, WOAI, 6:15 p.m., salutes the West with singing star Tex Williams voicing "With Men Who Know Tobacco Best It's Women Two to One."

The Show Goes On, KTSA, 7 p.m., John Ringling North and Tony Pastor audition acts for their needs.

Meet the Press, KMAC, 8:30 p.m., Dorothy Kenyon, former New York judge and member of UNESCO staff, will be interviewed.

Dramatic Programs

Mark Trail, KMAC, 5 p.m., "Ghost Forest," a story pointing out the need for water conservation, has adventure and thrills.

SMITH PROMOTED

Pvt. Albert Smith, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. James Hackney, Rt. 1, has been promoted to private first class while serving as a rifleman and squad leader with the Eighth Cavalry Regiment, First Cavalry Division in Camp King, Omiya, Japan.

Up for Parole, KTSA, 8 p.m., listeners are challenged, before the actual decision is revealed, to decide whether a convict's application for parole should have been granted.

Broadway's My Beat, KTSA, 8:30 p.m., a young husband confesses the murder of a policeman but his wife begs Detective Danny Clover to prove his innocence.

BEL ME

BEAUTIFUL

BEL

(Adjac

One Bedroom A