

DIAL LITES—TONIGHT

- 8:30—KECA—Following a dramatization of the winning play, John Chapman, drama critic of the New York News, will present the awards which are bestowed annually by the New York Drama Critics Circle. . . . Last year "Death of a Salesman" took the honors.
- 8:30—KFI—Take a trip to the "Outer Limit" on the first ship designed to penetrate outer space. . . . Here is a new series of science-fiction dramas titled "Dimension X," which gives us an insight into the possibilities of the future.
- 9:00—KNX—In co-operation with the National Probation and Parole Association, "Gangbusters" re-enacts the "Case of the Square Question Mark," in which two hoodlums lead an unwary victim into a life of crime.
- 10:30—KHJ—High lights of the "Gunnery Competition" to select the outstanding combat pilot and combat pilot teams will be described tonight. The program will also feature interviews with Gen. Vandenberg and Col. Mason.
- 10:30—KFI—This is the first in a 13-week series on the Marshall Plan in action, "Recovery Story." Tonight's story, "The Land That Was a Lake," tells the authentic story of a farmer's fight to get back into production the farm land that had been destroyed by the bombing of the Dutch dykes.