

Spotlighting the Dial

Popular Programs

Vaughn Monroe, KTSA, 6:30 p.m., salutes Phi Kappa Psi fraternity with its song, "Old Pal of Mine."

Cumberland Valley Barn Dance, KMAC, 12:30 p.m., a new series of hillbilly music sessions featuring folk songs, dances and instrumental specialties.

Dramatic Programs

Grand Central Station, KTSA, 11:30 a.m., featuring Hungarian-born actress Eve Gabor in her first dramatic role in "Angel in the Harbor."

Stars Over Hollywood, KTSA, 12 noon, with Jeffrey Lynn as guest performer in an original comedy, "A Million to One."

Gene Autry Show, KTSA, 7 p.m., wherein Gene's tactful intervention returns a young minister to carrying on his father's good work.

Gangbusters, KTSA, 8 p.m., in co-operation with the National Probation and Parole

Association, re-enacts the "Case of the Square Question Mark."

For Young People

Let's Pretend, KTSA, 10:05 a.m., giving "Heavenly Music," the story of a kingdom whose people were so good they were privileged to hear the angels' music.

Junior Miss, KTSA, 10:30 a.m., in which Judy's pal Fluffy Adams comes down with an acute case of spring fever.

Young Love, KTSA, 6 p.m., wherein the addelepatad Miss Darling is appointed instructor of a marital-relations course.

For Music Lovers

Philadelphia Orchestra, KTSA, 4 p.m., presenting Eugene Ormandy's fourth broadcast in this series, offering Beethoven and Ravel.

EASTER SERVICES