

Spotlighting the Dial

Popular Programs

Burns and Allen, KTSA, 9 p.m., with George and Gracie showing their friends how much health they acquired during a visit to Palm Springs.

Bing Crosby, KTSA, 8:30 p.m., entertaining guest vocalist Mildred Bailey, who got him his first professional singing job.

Can You Top This, KMAC, 7 p.m., wherein staff funsters try to top listener-submitted gags.

Dramatic Programs

Wendy Warren and the News, KTSA, 11 a.m., raising the question whether a hotel register is admissible as evidence in court.

Aunt Jenny, KTSA, 11:15 a.m., brings to a dramatic conclusion the story she has been telling.

This Is Nora Drake, KTSA, 1:30 p.m., begins its second year on the air, starring Joan Tompkins.

Mr. Chameleon, KTSA, 7 p.m., investigates the slaying of a divorcee following a court decision granting custody of her child to her former husband.

Dr. Christian, KTSA, 7:30 p.m., accepts $5,000 from a stranger to accompany him and a "sick" associate on a plane trip to Nevada.