

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 6:00—KFI—With the advent of the baseball season "Screen Directors Playhouse" presents Ray Milland in an adaptation of his film success, "It Happens Every Spring." This is a comedy in which a chemistry professor, who is also a baseball fan, accidentally hits upon a liquid that repels wood.
- 7:00—KHJ—Guy Gabrielson, chairman of the Republican National Committee, "Meets the Press" tonight. Interviewing him are four reporters from New York City dailies.
- 8:00—KECA—News that a homicidal maniac has escaped from an asylum is bad news to Brad Runyon, "The Fat Man." How he managed to corral this man, whom he had formally committed, is told on tonight's broadcast.
- 8:30—KNX—"A Golden Snake," that has been hidden for 3000 years by the Mayans, inspires Steve Lane to make a search for the golden treasure. But this "Escape" story proves that the legend is too strong to combat.
- 8:30—KFI—Dr. Hall, Ronald Coleman, and his wife, are in a quandry on tonight's "Halls of Ivy" program. After spending four years writing a biography of an obscure philosopher he learns that one of his colleagues is engaged in the same work. Which one shall be published?
