

Spotlighting the Dial

Popular Programs

Welcome Back Baseball, KMAC, 6 p.m., Bing Crosby and Bob Hope will be heard in a special broadcast to give a preview of the 1950 season.

Jack Benny, KTSA, 6 p.m., has invited Frank Fontaine, mimic and youthful funster, to visit the program.

Edgar Bergen-Charlie McCarthy, KTSA, 7 p.m., Jack Benny tangles with Charlie over a lost wallet when the Waukegan Wit visits the show.

Horace Heidt Show, KTSA, 8:30 p.m., Rudy and Lee, harmonica wizards, compete again to retain their championship on the talent show.

Dramatic Programs

E'nai B'rith program, KTSA, 4 p.m., "A Measure of Freedom," in co-operation with the Anti-Defamation League.

My Favorite Husband, KTSA, 5 p.m., Lucille Ball stars as Liz, who celebrates a tenth wedding anniversary by pretending she's single.

Theater Guild, WOAI, 7:30 p.m., Joan Fontaine and Richard Todd star in Charles Dickens' "Great Expectations."

Best in Music

Choraliers, KTSA, 1 p.m., return to the air with a program of favorite American songs rendered by the male chorus.

Spring Concert, WOAI, 3 p.m., the first in a series of seven weekly light classical music concerts.

Symphonette, KTSA, 3:30 p.m., folk music of several lands and simple symphonies opens a new spring series.

Contented Hour, KTSA, 9 p.m., stars Dick Haymes and Jo Stafford in songs America loves best.

Religious Programs

All on KTSA, 7:15 a.m., Chariot Wheels; 8:30 a.m., South San Antonio Baptist; 10:30 a.m., Salt Lake City Tabernacle Choir; 11:30 a.m., Travis Park Methodist Church.

For Children

Uncle Dan, KTSA, 9 a.m., reads the comics for the enjoyment of young and old.

Hopalong Cassidy, KMAC, 3 p.m., tries to solve the "Mystery of Diamond Z" and cattle rustling.