

Spotlighting the Dial

Popular Programs

Jack Smith and Dinah Shore, KTSA, 6:15 p.m., team for a duet "Music, Music, Music," and other current hits.

Call Board, KONO, 8:30 p.m., Amy Freeman Lee will discuss the 20th Local Artists Exhibition and the Film Forum's presentation of "Crime and Punishment."

Sports for all, KMAC, 7:30 p.m., Wilbur Shaw, speedway champion, and sports author John Durant share spotlight in tonight's session.

Dramatic Programs

Wendy Warren and the News, KTSA, 11 a.m., all of Wendy's

Congregation to Mark Christian College Day

The congregation of the Mad-personal feelings cry out against ever seeing Peter Wotten again.

F.B.I., KTSA, 7 p.m., the 17-year-old boy who looks for a quick way to make money by policy slips runs into the G-men.

Father Knows Best, WOAI, 7:30 p.m., Robert Young as father, is slated for a visit by a fuss-budget aunt.

Suspense, KTSA, 8 p.m., Ray Milland plays editor turned detective in "Pearls are a Nuisance," a story of a string of 49 pearls.

Hallmark Playhouse, KTSA, 9 p.m., "My Sister Eileen," a comedy hit, stars Rosalind Russell in her original role as Ruth.

Hollywood Theater, KTSA, 9:30 p.m., Gale Storm stars in "Dime a Dozen."