

DIAL LITES—TODAY

- 12:00—KNX—For its last program of the season Dimitri Mitropoulos conducts the New York Philharmonic Symphony in two 20th Century works, Sibelius' "Symphony No. 4 in A Minor," and the "Symphonia Domestica," by Richard Strauss. The great contralto, Marion Anderson, is the intermission guest.
- 12:00—KFI—America's longest running radio family story, "One Man's Family," has it's 18th birthday today. In recognition of this milestone, the Rev. Clifton Moore has bestowed upon the homely drama the title, "The Royal Family of the Air." Long popular with listeners, the cast is equally loyal for six of the original members are still with the show.
- 2:00—KNX—In commemoration of the second anniversary of Israel, CBS presents a special broadcast titled, "Israel, Year II," starring journalist Quentin Reynolds as narrator.
- 5:30—KHJ—Portions of the first Republican convention, held prior to the primaries in the State of California, will be broadcast at this time. Mr. Phillip Davis will preside over the convention when Republican dignitaries will listen to speeches by all the registered candidates in the state.
- 8:00—KECA—The Lansing Juvenile Choir, composed of 300 children from the ages of 8 to 15 years, present a program of music from the classic to the modern. This group has been the winner of many awards for its effectiveness in combatting delinquency.
- 11:15—KNX—The year 480 B. C. is the time of the famous "Battle of Thermopylae," which will be re-enacted in the series "You Are There."

TELE-TIPS