

Spotlighting the Dial

Popular Programs

Burns and Allen, KTSA, 9 p.m., wherein Gracie loses her purse and George almost loses his mind.

Bing Crosby, KTSA, 8:30 p.m., receives ample advice on his European tour from barb-tongued Beatrice Lillie.

Can You Top This, KMAC, 7 p.m., in which top-flight "gag-busters" strive to top listener-submitted gags.

Dramatic Programs

Wendy Warren and the News, KTSA, 11 a.m., finds Wendy and Don apparently closer than they have ever been.

Dr. Christian, KTSA, 7:30 p.m., treats a 15-year-old girl who insists that she has killed her father, in "The Baby Sitter."

Lum and Abner, KTSA, 9:30 p.m., with Lum, bitten by the culture bug, promoting a literary discussion club in Pine Ridge.

Mr. Chameleon, KTSA, 7 p.m., trails a roomer after his landlady is slain, in "The High Cost of Living Murder Case."

This Is Nora Drake, KTSA, 1:30 p.m., in which Tom, standing at the gangplank, is torn on the horns of a dilemma.

Aunt Jenny, KTSA, 11:15 a.m., brings a semi-documentary drama, "Baby for Sale," concerning a black-market adoption service.

NAMED SECRETARY

Miss Helen Stapleton, 818 Peck Ave., will serve as secretary of the Baptist Student Union at Mary Hardin-Baylor College for 1950-51. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Stepleton.

WEDN

Col

Prof ciate d
versity
San A here h torney alumni
Dean on the been t alumni studied prior t ing th
was gr
Law Sc
with th

"When it comes to saving

We Catch On

QUICK"