

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 6:00—KNX—Here is one man who believes the guarantee printed on the bottle, and puts in his claim. "Luigi" has verra bad cold, buys cough medicine . . . result . . . still verra bad cold . . . so back he goes for his money. . . . A fine test case, and we are all for you Luigi.
- 6:30—KFI—Of course the first citizen of Wistful Vista to be on hand to open the fishing season will be Fibber McGee, that is, if he can get his automatic fly reel put back together again in time.
- 7:00—KNX—A race track provides the locale for the next "Adventure of Philip Marlowe." He assumes the role of a jockey to find the murderer of a black-bearded sailor, who bleeds to death on a racing form.
- 7:45—KECA—"The Liberal Way of Opposing Communism" will be discussed by Michael Straight, editor of New Republic, when he is guest speaker on "Report to the People."
- 9:00—KECA—Leon H. Keyserling, member of the President's Council of Economic Advisers, and Dr. Emerson Schmidt, U. S. Chamber of Commerce economist, will interpret the nation's unemployment picture on "America's Town Meeting."