

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

6:30—KFI—In a special salute to National Music Week, stars of "Annie Get Your Gun" will sing songs from that popular musical show. Introducing his own music will be Irving Berlin and singing his songs will be Betty Hutton and Howard Keel, stars of the picture, who bring us music "From Broadway to Hollywood."

6:30—KNX—Al Jolson joins Der Bingle in a medley of three old favorites, "Avalon," "Rosie" and "Lullaby of Broadway," when he and Ella Fitzgerald share the guest spotlight on the "Bing Crosby Show." Crosby and Jolson also pay tribute to the Kentucky Derby by closing the show with a duet of "My Old Kentucky Home."

7:30—KFI—Steve Mitchell is called in to locate documents which are needed for an important secret meeting in Paris. Lost in transit from the Balkans, their recovery is the "Dangerous Assignment" tonight.

8:00—KECA—When Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson have their study redecorated, the workers lead them to an opium smuggling operation in the "Magic Carpet" on the "Adventures of Sherlock Holmes."

8:30—KHJ—Don Ameche will be host and narrator for "The Family Theater's" presentation of the life story of Sarah Bernhardt. Jeanette Nolan will portray "The Divine Sarah."
