

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 6:00—KFI—Charles Boyer and Olivia de Havilland will have the leads in an adaptation of their film success, "Hold Back the Dawn," on "Screen Guild Theater" tonight. In this, Boyer plays an unscrupulous gigolo who marries his way into the U. S. Miss De Havilland plays the schoolmarm who is his victim.
- 7:00—KNX—Film star Joan Fontaine appears in the title role of "Victoria Regina" on the "Playhouse" production tonight. James Hilton, narrator, sets the scene for vignettes from the famous queen's life.
- 8:30—KHJ—Davis Cup Tennis Champion Sidney Wood and Bruce Tuttle, fishing author, will join sportsmen Jeff Bryant and Gail Borden in answering questions submitted to "Sports for All."
- 9:00—KFI—When Kathy adopts a rare and valuable hunting dog without telling her father pandemonium reigns in the Anderson household, on "Father Knows Best." "George," the dog, gets father into all sorts of trouble when he digs up the neighbors' gardens.
- 9:15—KECA—Names of the recipients of the "Peabody Awards" will be announced by Edward Weeks, editor of the Atlantic Monthly, and Dean John Drewry of the U. of Georgia's School of Journalism. These prizes are in the field of television and radio.