

Spotlighting the Dial

Popular Programs

Curt Massey, KTSA, 5:30 p.m., joins winsome Martha Tilton in a program of popular songs, including the duet, "Whistle While You Work."

Robert Q. Lewis, KTSA, 7:15 p.m., presents "The Show Goes On" with Broadway producer Herman Levin looking for a singer-comedienne, and other talent buyers auditioning entertainment acts.

Arthur Godfrey, KTSA, 9:15 a.m., winds up another week of his popular program of songs, comedy and chatter by Godfrey on nearly any subject, but all fascinating and entertaining.

Dramatic Programs

Nora Drake, KTSA, 1:30 p.m., tells how Tom, heart in hand, makes a desperate plea for Suzanne's love.

Danny Clover, KTSA, 8:30 p.m., homicide detective in the "Broadway Is My Beat" story tells how a girl's suicide attempt is balked to be followed by her murder.

News Program

Capital Cloak Room, KTSA, 9:30 p.m., gives facts behind the Washington scene as a famous personality is interviewed by CBS reporters. Radio Newspaper, KTSA, 10 p.m., brings latest complete roundup of news from the world, national and local news fronts, compiled for best listening.

Sports Program

Game Of The Day, KMAC, 12:30 p.m., presents a direct from the scene broadcast of the major league game between the New York Yankees and Cleveland Indians.

You and the Horse, KTSA, 5:15 p.m., is CBS concluding series leading up to the Kentucky Derby, with a famous trainer who has a favorite horse being interviewed by Joe Palmer, the CBS racing broadcaster.

ALAMO REVIEW MEETS

Officers of Alamo Review No. 22 of the Woman's Benefit Association are to be entertained at 2 p.m. Friday at the residence of Mrs. Billie Gray, 280 Halcyon St. Mrs. Gray and Mrs. Hilda Williams will be co-hostesses.

'HAPPY MEDIUM'

LAXATIVE First

With Millions

Yes, more people use Ex-Lax than any other laxative! Millions know, from experience, that Ex-Lax is not too strong, not too mild, not too fast, not too slow.

TELEVISION