

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 7:00—KFI—Fred Allen will make one of his infrequent radio appearances when he joins Perry Como for a special Mother's Day program on the "Supper Club." This celebration should make a fine subject for Allen's peculiar brand of pathos.
- 7:00—KNX—Teresa Wright stars in "Marmee," the biography of Abbe May Alcott, mother of "Little Women." Because of her wise guidance, Louisa grew to be a successful writer and the main support of the family.
- 8:00—KHJ—"Dangerous Ambition" is the motivation for tonight's chapter of the life of the world's foremost animal trainer, "Clyde Beatty."
- 8:30—KFI—Want to make a profit on that last litter of pups? Get in touch with Henry and Homer on the "Aldrich Family" program tonight for details on their latest business venture.
- 9:00—KECA—Bernard De Voto's book, "The World of Fiction," will be discussed by friendly and hostile critics when "Author Meets the Critic" tonight. Leo Gurko, English professor at Hunter College, will defend the book, while Dr. Fredrick Wertham, psychologist, will emphasize its weak points.
