

Spotlighting

Popular Programs

Margaret Whiting, KTSA, 6:15 p.m., sings "Stay With the Happy People," and teams with Jack Smith in "Chick Chick A Boom Chick."

Robert Q. Lewis, KTSA, 7 p.m., auditions new and popular entertainment acts for buyers, in a program which has sold more than two-thirds of the performers who have appeared.

Arthur Godfrey, KTSA, 9:15 a.m., concludes another week of his popular program, liberally sprinkled with gags, songs and the Godfrey humor.

Bob Crosby, KTSA, 6:30 p.m., and the Andrews Sisters, in a program of sparkling popular songs and chit-chat.

Dramatic Programs

Up For Parole, KTSA, 8 p.m., enacting an actual case history, tells the story of a belligerent 24-year-old youth convicted of cattle-rustling and as accessory in a murder.

Aunt Jenny, KTSA, 11:15 a.m., brings to a conclusion an exciting episode in the marriage of John and Sally Franklin.

Danny Clover, KTSA, 8:30 p.m., the Broadway detective, finds a recipe for per-

TELEVISION