

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 7:00—KNX—When George and Gracie close their current radio series everybody will step out of character except Gracie. Bill Goodwin avers that he is not a "wolfe" . . . just a home-loving guy. Mrs. Morton is ready to admit that George is not quite the oaf that she has described, but both she and her husband admit they are unsure of Gracie's mental capacities.
- 7:30—KFI—With the oil situation in Arabia as delicate as it is, the fact that one of the big companies comes up with a 100,000-barrel discrepancy is a "Dangerous Assignment" which Steve Mitchell will explore tonight.
- 7:30—KNX—Tony Lavello, 16-year-old accordion player, will be the guest of Lucille Norman on "Hollywood Music Hall." One of his selections will be the overture to "William Tell." Miss Norman will open with "Why Do I Love You" and close with "Yours Is My Heart Alone."
- 11:00—KHJ—An address by Gen. Clifton E. Gates, transcribed from a luncheon at the Biltmore in Los Angeles, will be re-broadcast at this time.
- 11:15—KECA—As part of National Defense Week, the festivities surrounding the preview of "The Men" will be broadcast. Top stars of Hollywood, as well as important military leaders, will participate in this special program for which Frances Scully will be mistress of ceremonies.
