

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 6:00—KNX—Jimmy gets a shot of truth serum by mistake and forgets all those little white lies so necessary to make life run smoothly and when Jan's mother arrives, while he is under the influence, it almost breaks up their marriage on "Young Love."
- 6:30—KFI—Don Ameche plays a dirty trick on his mother-in-law when he gets Jimmy Durante to teach her to drive. All goes well until Durante learns about his insurance status.
- 8:00—KHJ—Screen star George Murphy occupies the guest star role on "Proudly We Hall." The story, "History in the Making," tells of the trials and tribulations of a young attorney who has to fight off the advances of many a gold-digger.
- 8:15—KTED—For the benefit of the Boy Scout Camp Fund, well known amateur boxers will appear sponsored by the Elks Club of Laguna. Seven bouts are scheduled.
- 8:30—KECA—A case dealing with the current juvenile problem, the wolf packs, will be taken up on "This Is Your FBI." Special agents join forces with the local police to break up the gambling syndicate that sponsors these young hoodlums.

TOMORROW

- 12:15—KHJ—A special round-table discussion of "Frontiers Away . . . the Citizens Role in the World Community" will be presented in conjunction with the annual convention of Parents and Teachers.
- 8:30—KFI—Four of America's outstanding pianists will play the rarely-heard Vivaldi-Bach "Concerto in A Minor" on Milton Katims' "Spring Concert." Other selections on the program include Prokofiev's "Peter and the Wolf" and Saint-Saens' "French Military March."
- 4:30—KTED—Adm. William Harrison Standley, former ambassador to Russia, will present an address pertaining to the "Cold War," in a salute to Armed Forces Day.

TELE-TIPS