

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 6:00—KNX—"Night Song" starring Joan Fontaine and Dana Andrews has been selected by "Radio Theater" for tonight's play. This is the story of an heiress who falls in love with a blind pianist, and makes it possible for him to regain his sight.
- 8:00—KECA—Tony Mottola, noted guitarist, plays two of his own compositions which illustrate his nimble technique, on the musical riot "Strictly From Dixie."
- 9:00—KFI—Polyna Stoska, Met opera star, visits "Telephone Hour." She will give a Memorial Day program.
- 9:00—KECA—A full hour documentary history of "America's Town Meeting," tracing the program's growth in 15 years of broadcasting will be presented tonight. The voices of statesmen and world leaders will be heard discussing the controversies of their day.
- 11:00—KHJ—A special preview of the annual Decoration Day Indianapolis Speedway motor classic will be aired over the Mutual Network tonight. Noted sportsmen and motoring experts will be introduced by emcees Bill Slater and Sid Collins.

TOMORROW