

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 6:00—KFI—John Hodiak and Claire Trevor have been assigned to the leads in "The Dark Corner," the "Screen Guild" bill for tonight. The story deals with a private detective who is framed by his partner and spends two years in jail.
- 7:00—KNX—The Hallmark Playhouse will move from Hollywood tonight to Kansas City, Mo., to present a special dramatization of that city's story. The Kansas City broadcast is a prelude to its summer-long centennial celebration, and stars Robert Young and Jane Wyman.
- 7:00—KFI—The members of Perry Como's cast will have their chance to do the things they've wanted to do all year on the last Supper Club show of the current season. Bandleader Mitchell Ayres joins Perry in song with "It Isn't Fair," while announcers with Martin Block and Tony Marvin do a duet with "Cinderella."
- 7:30—KHJ—Red Ryder gets on the trail of a hard-bitten gang under the leadership of a masked character known only as the Grey Wolf, during the adventure titled "Ridin' the Trouble Range."
- 9:00—KECA—"The Comedy of Al Capp" will be the discussion topic on ABC's "Author Meets Critic" program. Capp will be present and accounted for when the discussion begins.
