

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 6:00—KFI—Rosalind Russell will play a psychiatrist who would do well to consult a psychiatrist herself in "She Wouldn't Say Yes," the "Screen Directors' Playhouse" bill for tonight. Several seasons ago Miss Russell played this part of a woman who is ignorant of the physician-heal-thyself injunction.
- 7:30—KHJ—Following the victory of Chief Sitting Bull over Gen. Custer, an explosive situation exists sparked by the fact that white men are supplying Indians with rifles. In this tense spot the "Cisco Kid" becomes involved in the "Massacre at Pinto Basin."
- 8:30—KNX—The story of the rocket ship Venture and the eighteen men who made the first flight to Mars from Earth is told in the "Escape" story "Mars in Heaven." As these adventurers find many of their former friends living on this far-flung planet, they begin to think they have reached heaven.
- 9:30—KECA—A case involving the activities of two hardened female criminals will be dramatized on "This Is Your FBI." They are engaged in a rampage of armed robbery and assault when they are picked up just in time to save the lives of three innocent victims.
- 11:00—KHJ—Norman Thomas, Socialist party leader, will speak from Detroit, Mich., where their party convention is being held.
