

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 5:30—KHJ—Ezio Pinza, who is carving himself an unusual career via the Met to Broadway into Hollywood, will make his last radio appearance in the east when he guests with Radie Harris tonight. Listen in for this great man's plans for the future in the cinema capital.
- 6:00—KNX—Jay C. Flippen takes over the emcee job on "Earn Your Vacation." Think of a free two weeks trip to any place in the world just for answering a few little old questions, and Jay will be right on hand to help you with his "Flippen-cies."
- 7:00—KECA—Actor Jose Ferrer will go into his best ad-libbing routine when he confronts the panel of movieland reporters in an offcuff exchange of questions and answers on "Hollywood Byline."
- 7:30—KFI—Ernest Tubb, the Texas Troubadour, will be back as guest vocalist on "Grand Ole Opry." Red Foley, the singing star, will solo "Lonesome Road Blues" and "One Step More."
- 10:30—KNX—The Rt. Honorable Frederick James Marquis Woolton, Lord Woolton, chairman of the Conservative party in Britain, who is on a brief visit to this country, will address the Institute of Political Education.

TELE-TIPS