

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 5:00—KECA—Sergeant Preston on the Yukon Challenge program is given another tough assignment when he is asked to solve the mystery of the disappearance of Stan Taylor. There are men who will kill to keep this a secret . . . s-o-o-o-o-o!
- 6:00—KNX—Claudette Colbert and Robert Young, who appeared in the original screen version of "Bride for Sale," will repeat their roles tonight on "Radio Theater."
- 8:00—KHJ—The dead woman found following a fire, was believed to be the "Witch of Mill Hollow." George Valentine ("Let George Do It"), called in on the case, overthrows a few superstitions and comes up with the real solution.
- 8:00—KFI—"One Man's Family," will break with long tradition when the program switches to a quarter-hour Monday-through-Friday schedule . . . starting tonight.
- 8:30—KFI—The second summer show of "The Railroad Hour" will recall music and events of 1937 during the program tonight. Gordon MacRae and Lucille Norman are the vocal stars, with Carmen Dragon conducting the orchestra and Norman Luboff directing the chorus.