

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 6:30—KNX—What's cooking in popular music in the Southwest, New England and the Midwest? Three disc jockeys with their fingers on the pulse of these areas will hand in their reports on "The ABC's of Music," starring Robert Q. Lewis and Ralph Flanagan and his orchestra.
- 7:00—KECA—"The Lone Ranger" faces the threat of death when he tries to capture that elusive outlaw "The Cimmaron Kid." Many brilliant lawmen have failed in this mission, but the "Lone Ranger" is known to get his man.
- 8:30—KFI—With visions of cruising around Grass Lake with Catherine Milford, "The Great Gildersleeve" persuades the Jolly Boys to buy a houseboat. Bronco Thompson has picked up a boat in a real estate deal and is delighted to unload it. Everything proceeds in the customary involved fashion.
- 8:30—KHJ—Philip Hale's immortal story is scheduled for tonight's "Family Theater." Edmond O'Brien will play the lead with Lisbeth Scott as hostess.
- 9:30—KFI—The exciting story of a dynamite explosion that knocks in a prison wall and sets two vengeance seeking convicts on the loose in "The Case of All But Two" will be broadcast on "Mr. District Attorney."
