

Spotlighting the Dial

Variety

This is Nora Drake, KTSA, 1:30 p.m.—Dr. Sargent finds himself involved in Dobbs' strange mental state.

Winner Take All, KTSA, 2:30 p.m.—Columbia network popular daytime give-away program.

We, the People, WOAI, 7:30 p.m.—All-American football star Doak Walker tops a distinguished group of college graduates when he is interviewed by Dan Seymour.

The Show Goes On, KTSA, 7 p.m.—Minnie Guggenheimer of Lewisohn Stadium in New York City and Mark Towers, band leader, visit "The Show Goes On" to audition acts.

Air Force Hour, KMAC, 8 p.m.—Air Force Band and Concert Orchestra will be featured from Krug Park Bowl, St. Joseph, Mo.

Broadway's My Beat, KTSA, 8:30 p.m.—Detective Danny Clover discovers a murdered girl and a wounded boy who won't talk.

Capitol Cloak Room, KTSA, 9:30 p.m.—Three Washington newsmen and a legislator huddle before microphones for another revealing broadcast.

Music

Treasury Bandstand, KTSA, 3:30 p.m.—Bobby Byrne and his orchestra offer newest rhythms.

Curt Massey Time, KTSA, 5:30 p.m.—Martha Tilton sings "Bewitched" and joins Massey in "The Picnic Song."

Jack Smith Sings, KTSA, 6:15 p.m.—Margaret Whiting returns to sing "I Hadn't Anyone Till You," and to duet with Smith "Circus Rag."

News

Edward R. Murrow, KTSA, 6:45 p.m.

Radio Newspaper, KTSA, 10 p.m.—Unique program of local and world news compiled by the editorial department of the San Antonio Express.

Name Insurance Man
On Advisory Group