

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 5:30—KFI—A vocal interpretation of "The Blue Danube" will be the high light of "Starlight Concert" tonight. This light summer music of Carmen Dragon also includes "The Riff Song" and "Hail, Spartans, Hail."
- 7:00—KHJ—A midget's wish, to grow to normal size, is rewarded by a magic drug. But his happiness is short lived, as told in the "Murder at Midnight" story, "The Secret of XR-3."
- 8:30—KNX—Marriage for money is the fertile premise for the handiwork of Satan, on the second broadcast of "Satan's Waitin'." When Lucille plans to marry Gordon for ulterior reasons she does not count on his aunt disinheriting him.
- 8:30—KFI—Lucille Ball plays the rebel spy in "The Redemption of Lottie Moon." Gen. Ambrose Burnside has bitter memories of the fascinating girl, sought by Pinkerton Detectives in 1863. After eight years he has an ideal opportunity for revenge.
- 9:00—KECA—"When Are We Too Old to Work?" We hope the answer is "never," but let's listen to "America's Town Meeting" and hear what Dr. Howard Rusk of the N. Y. Times and professor of medicine at N. Y. U. College of Medicine, and William Caples, of the Inland Steel Co., propose on this issue. The broadcast will originate at Rutgers University.
