

DIAL LITES—TODAY

- 5:00—KECA—The entire jackpot of "Stop the Music" is now composed of U. S. Savings Bonds. Help your country and help yourself by competing for this one.
- 5:30—KFI—William Kapell, brilliant virtuoso of the piano, will be the soloist with the symphony orchestra under the direction of Alfred Wallenstein. His major selections will be Rachmaninoff's "Concerto No. 2" and Schumann's "Traumerie" and "Gato" by Napolitano.
- 5:30—KNX—When a man who threatened the life of Rocky Jordan is found dead, things look a little suspicious for the owner of Cairo's Cafe Tambourine, in "Shake Down," the chilling episode to be related tonight.
- 7:00—KECA—"Clear and Present Danger," the documentary analysis of the country's loyalty program presented in "suspense story" format, will be rebroadcast tonight. Its amazing reception on its initial broadcast makes it imperative for all to heed its message.
- 8:00—KNX—For those awful offspring who have not made Father's Day all it should be, a series of daffy "Do's and Don'ts" will high light the Steve Allen Show. It is guaranteed that if his rules are followed Dad will never forget this day, although he may wish he were out of this world so that he could forget.
- 9:30—KHJ—The air-audition feature of the "Chicago Theater" will be resumed this year. The first performer is lyric soprano Lillian Murphy. Each week a new aspirant will compete for the final prize.
