

The following programs are compiled from reports provided by the broadcast-

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

- 10:00—KNX—Ronald Reagan and Patricia Neal will portray their original roles in the hilarious comedy "John Loves Mary." This is a "Radio Theater" production.
- 10:30—KECA—Awni Khalidy, chief delegate of Iraq to the U. N., who plays a major part in the proposed internationalization of Jerusalem, will present his views on this subject in a spontaneous interview on ABC's "United or Not."
- 11:00—KHJ—"George" receives a mysterious record from an opera singer . . . shortly hereafter the man and his wife are both killed . . . "A Solo in Whispers" is the only clue provided by the recording, but it eventually cracks the case.
- 11:30—KFI—The delicate romance of the "Gay Nineties" will be re-created in song and story on the "Railroad Hour" with baritone Gordon MacRae and soprana Lucille Norman taking over the lead parts.
- 12:30—KNX—With Bill's mother due in town for her annual visit, "Beulah" sets up a campaign to prove herself a desirable daughter-in-law.

TOMORROW

- 11:15—KTED—Another of those special re-creations of the Liberty Broadcasting System, where you have a front row seat for some of the best major baseball. These re-creations are given only when there are no other live games being played, as Liberty features play-by-play, direct from the ball park, games.

TELE-TIPS