

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

7:00—KECA—"The Lone Ranger" feels sure that the marshall accused of murder is innocent, but the only witness is miles away. When the "Masked Man" rides after him, he faces the threat of death in "Counsel for the Defense."

7:30—KNX—Jerry Hilliard, who plays the harmonica the way others wish they could, will be the guest of Lucille Norman on "Hollywood Music Hall." His numbers will be both popular and classical.

8:30—KHJ—Patricia Neale plays hostess to the "Family Theater" presentation of "The Story of Launcelot."

8:30—KFI—When Michael Waring, alias "The Falcon," investigates "The Case of the Gangster's Son" he finds himself embroiled in a plot which involves rival gangs who are gunning for each other. Complications ensue when he finds that the top crook's own son is trying to murder No. 1 man . . . his father.

10:30—KNX—A special broadcast presented in co-operation with the American Legion Auxiliary stars Helen Hayes as a GI widow who has rejected all outside activities until she discovers the human bonds between her home town and the rest of the world. The drama is titled "For Us the Living."