

Spotlighting the Dial

Dramatic Programs

Aunt Jenny's Stories, KTSA, 11:15 a.m.—Aunt Jenny airs the first chapter of "The Awakening," a real life story of a happy marriage that nearly hits the rocks.

This Is Nora Drake, KTSA, 1:30 p.m.—Suzanne faces the most important concert of her career. How will her state of mind affect her performance?

The Show Goes On, KTSA, 7 p.m.—Robert Q. Lewis emcees this program which auditions talent for entertainment buyers.

Up For Parole, KTSA, 7:30 p.m.—Hard-bitting C.B.S. drama re-enacting actual case histories of men and women seeking parole.

Escape, KTSA, 9 p.m.—Vincent Price of the movies stars in this original radio drama, "The Bloodbath."

Capitol Cloak Room, KTSA, 9:30 p.m.—A prominent lawmaker is interviewed by three C.B.S. Washington newsmen.

Special Program

President Truman, KMAC, 8 p.m.—President Truman will address the National Jamboree of the Boy Scouts of America at Valley Forge, Pa.

Musical

Jack Smith Sings, KTSA, 6:15 p.m.—Last show before a seven-week vacation time. Jack and Margaret Whiting sing "In The Good Old Summertime."

Meredith Willson, WOAI, 6:15 p.m.—Willson goes western with Cowgirl Singer Janny Jackson in a guest appearance.

Songs For Sale, KTSA, 8 p.m.—Songstress Kay Armen. Composer Bob Hilliard and Conductor Richard Himber will judge works of four aspirants to success as song writers as this new program makes its debut.

Cub Scout Camp Trip Postponed

The proposed two-week camp period for Cub Scout Pack 6023, scheduled for July 1 - 15 at Camp Bullis, has been indefinitely postponed.

The camping period that was to have gotten underway Saturday, had to be postponed due to illness on the part of personnel assigned to conducting the camp and trained in Cub Scout work.

An attempt to conduct the camp at a later date, when operating personnel are relieved from the hospital will be made provided the camp period will not conflict with military training already booked for Camp