

The following programs are compiled from reports provided by the...

DIAL LITES—TODAY

- 12:30—KHJ—A new series of action-packed western adventures will bow in today when "Hashknife Hartley," the rip-snorting cowboy and his side-kick, Sleepy Stevens, pursue their bold undertakings.
- 5:00—KHJ—Another popular cowboy takes over the "Roy Rogers" spot. He is Curley Bradley, who is starred as a singing U. S. Marshal, and becomes involved in many exciting adventures.
- 5:30—KFI—It is All-American Day on the NBC Summer Concert. Milton Katims will open the program with George Chadwick's "Jubilee Overture" followed by Rise Stevens singing "I Wonder as I Wander."
- 6:00—KNX—Margie Hart, pulchritudinous personality of the entertainment world, will join the word experts, Abe Burrows and Lyman Bryson, on Columbia's "We Take Your Word."
- 6:30—KFI—William Powell, who has portrayed many charming characters on the screen, will star as a testy but lovable family man in a new comedy series, "My Mother's Husband."
- 10:30—KECA—A lively comedy of backstage life will be the "Career Theater" offering titled "An Angel on Broadway." In the cast are Jo Chambers, the aspiring actress; James Duggert, an unknown magician, and Elliot Peck, their guiding spirit.

TELE-TIPS