

Spotlighting the Dial

Comedy-Drama

Mystery Theater, KTSA, 7 p.m.—

A vicious parrot guards the body of a murder victim and gives Inspector Hearshstone an unexpected clue in "The Screaming Parrot Murder Case."

This Is Nora Drake, KTSA, 1:30 p.m.—Peg Martinson places all of her faith in one man. Can the strange Dr. Sargent cure this young cripple?

Special Programs

You and Korea, KTSA, 5:15 p.m. Kyung Parks, a native of Korea, now employed by the Voice of America, U.S. round-the-world radio broadcast, will give a view of the present situation as a Korean sees it.

All-Star for the 17th renewal of the baseball classic at Comiskey Park in Chicago.

Music

Curt Massey Time, KTSA, 5:30 p.m.—Liltin' Martha Tilton sings "Count Every Star," and Massey joins her for "Home Cooking." Featured is a Joe Burke medley that includes "Moon Over Miami."

There's Music in the Air, KTSA, 9 p.m.—Al Goodman and his orchestra, with Soloists Eileen Farrell and Hayes Gordon, are "Comediantator" Hirma Sherman.

Garry Moore Show, KTSA, 6 p.m.—A half hour of variety songs and comedy by a famous radio master of ceremonies.

Incarinate Word Registration Set

Registration for the second term of the summer session at Incarnate Word College will be held on Saturday, with first class sessions on Monday, July